

Ethics Examination

Applicants: You must complete an ethics examination according to the requirements of the Colorado Board. Section 12-2-109, C.R.S. states the following, in part:

"..(1) Any person who has qualified under the provisions of section 12-2-108 shall be granted a certificate or certified public accountant:....(b) If he has successfully completed a course of study concerning the subject of professional ethics, approved by the board, and passed a written examination concerning such subject prepared and given by educational institutions of professional organizations deemed qualified by the board to administer such examination;...."

The Board has approved the self-study course entitled "Professional Ethics: The AICPA's Comprehensive Course" which is prepared and graded by the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants (AICPA).

The course may be ordered by completing the order form below and returning it with the appropriate fee to the Colorado Society of Certified Public Accountants. After you receive your certificate of completion, include a copy of it in your final application packet.
