

GUIDE TO STYLE

A GLANCE INTO NASBA ATTIRE

BUSINESS DRESS

Business Dress is the second most common suggested attire for NASBA meetings. As representatives of state boards, societies and/or firms, this allows our attendees to project a professional image at all times during the business meetings. Below is a list of suggestions when selecting your wardrobe for Business Dress.

MEN

- Jacket
- Button-up shirt
- Tie
- Dress pants or slacks
- Socks
- Dress shoes

WOMEN

- Dress
- Skirt (appropriate length)
- Skirt with jacket/cardigan sweater
- Slacks with jacket/cardigan sweater
- Flats or dress heels
- Jewelry

BUSINESS CASUAL

Business Casual is the most common suggested attire for NASBA meetings. As representatives of state boards, societies and/or firms, this allows our attendees to dress comfortably during the business meetings while maintaining a professional image. Below is a list of suggestions for appropriate Business Casual attire.

MEN

- Slacks and khakis
- Button-up shirt
- Polo shirt
- No tie
- Socks
- Conservative shoes, oxfords, loafers

WOMEN

- Casual dress
- Skirt (appropriate length)
- Slacks
- Casual blouse
- Flats, dress heels
- Jewelry

RESORT BUSINESS

Some meetings are held at resorts in exotic cities across the United States. During the meetings, NASBA likes for the attendees to remain comfortable and casual while remaining professional. At these meetings, dress attire may be Resort Business. Below is a list of suggestions for appropriate Resort Business attire.

MEN

- Slacks and khakis
- Polo Shirt
- Hawaiian shirt
- No tie
- Conservative shoes

WOMEN

- Casual dress
- Skirt (appropriate length)
- Hawaiian shirt
- Flats and sandals
- Jewelry

RESORT DRESSY CASUAL

When NASBA meetings are held at exotic resorts, social functions may suggest our attendees dress in Resort Dressy Casual attire. This allows our guests to remain casual and resort appropriate while networking and discussing various topics discussed during the business meetings. Below is a list of suggestions that is appropriate when selecting a Resort Dressy Casual attire.

MEN

- Slacks
- Hawaiian shirt
- Polo shirt
- Button Down Shirt
- No tie
- Sandals/Shoes
- Jackets Optional

Shorts are discouraged*

WOMEN

- Casual dress
- Sundress
- Skirt (appropriate length)
- Sandals
- Jewelry

Shorts are discouraged*

DRESSY CASUAL

Occasionally, some NASBA functions require a slightly dressier casual style. Whether determined by the theme of the event or the dress code of the event location, this style generally discourages shorts and casual footwear. Below is a list of suggestions that is appropriate when selecting Dressy Casual attire.

MEN

- Slacks and khakis
- Button down shirt
- No tie
- Closed toed shoes

WOMEN

- Sundress
- Skirt (appropriate length)
- Sandals low heels
- Jewelry

EVENING CASUAL

Not all evening functions require formal attire. Some events give our guests the option to dress in an Evening Casual style. These functions allow our members to continue networking and generate discussions from the day's business meeting while allowing a more casual atmosphere. Below is a list of suggestions that is appropriate when selecting your wardrobe for Evening Casual Dress.

MEN

- Slacks and khakis
- Button-up shirt
- No tie
- Polo shirt
- Socks
- Dress shoes or oxfords

WOMEN

- Casual dress
- Skirts (appropriate length)
- Slacks
- Casual blouse
- Flats or heels
- Jewelry

EVENING DRESS

Many NASBA meetings include an evening function where attendees are encouraged to wear Evening Dress attire. These functions allow our members to continue networking and generate discussions from the day's business meeting yet are somewhat dressier in nature. Below is a list of suggestions when selecting your wardrobe for Evening Dress.

MEN

- Dark suit
- Dark jacket and pants
- Tie
- Dress shoes and socks
- Belt

WOMEN

- Dress
- Dark suit
- Skirt and jacket
- Heels
- Jewelry

BLACK TIE/COCKTAIL

From time to time, NASBA likes to make the last social event of the meeting something memorable for its attendees and guests. For these events, Black Tie and Cocktail dress is requested for our attendees. Below is a list of suggestions that is appropriate for a Black Tie/Cocktail evening.

MEN

Tuxedo
Dark Suit
Dress Shoes

WOMEN

Formal Dress
Dark Suit
Heels
Jewelry

