SCHOLARSHIP INFORMATION

NASBA offers scholarships for the majority of its conferences. Please note the following:

1. Each conference scholarship has different eligibility requirements.
2. Scholarship deadlines vary each year – information will be sent out prior to each conference at the start of each scholarship cycle. Only apply for scholarships during the conference cycle dates.
3. All scholarship requests must be received through the scholarship request form

Executive Directors/State Board Staff Conference & Conference for State Board Legal Counsel Scholarship Program

NASBA scholarships are available to one (1) Executive Director and one (1) Legal Counsel from each jurisdiction only if your Board of Accountancy would not otherwise be represented and does not have the travel funds available.

NASBA scholarships cover the following costs:

1. Event registration
2. Round trip economy air travel
3. Economy transportation to and from the airport to the destination hotel,
4. Three (3) nights' lodging at the conference hotel.

IMPORTANT: All other Incidental costs, including meals, telephone, gratuities, parking, car rentals, baggage fees, home city transportation, etc., are NOT reimbursable.

Every attempt should be made to make airline reservations at least 30-45 days prior to departure to obtain the most favorable rates. To ensure reimbursement for hotel fees, reservations must be made by the published hotel reservation deadline. Original receipts must be provided for reimbursement. Instructions for submitting receipts can be found on the reimbursement form.

Regional Meeting Scholarship Programs

NASBA offers support to state board members through two separate programs: 1) Current Board Member Scholarship Program and 2) New Board Member Orientation Scholarship Program.

Board Member Scholarship Program

NASBA scholarships are available to one current Board of Accountancy member if that Board would not otherwise be represented and does not have travel funds available.

Note: This scholarship is separate from the New Board Member Scholarship is not contingent on how many New Board Member Scholarships are awarded.

Board Scholarships cover the following costs:

1. Event registration
2. Round trip economy air travel
3. Economy transportation to and from the airport to the destination hotel,
4. Three (3) nights' lodging at the conference hotel.

AND

New Board Member Orientation Scholarship Program

Funding is available to Regional Meetings for all NEW board members appointed after June 1 of the previous year.

New Board Member Orientation Scholarships cover the following costs regardless of the travel funds of Boards of Accountancy:

1. Event registration
2. Round trip economy air travel
3. Economy transportation to and from the airport to the destination hotel,
4. Four (4) nights' lodging at the conference hotel.

New board members are expected to actively participate in the New Board Member Orientation. New board members who register for, but do not attend the orientation will be charged the registration fee and will not qualify to receive NASBA travel reimbursement.

IMPORTANT: All other Incidental costs, including meals, telephone, gratuities, parking, car rentals, baggage fees, home city transportation, etc., are NOT reimbursable.

Every attempt should be made to make airline reservations at least 30-45 days prior to departure to obtain the most favorable rates. To ensure reimbursement for hotel fees, reservations must be made by the published hotel reservation deadline. Original receipts must be provided for reimbursement. Instructions for submitting receipts can be found on the reimbursement form.
