Certificate of Enrollment

Candidates for the CPA exam are allowed to submit their exam application up to 30 days prior to being awarded a baccalaureate degree and satisfying all other education requirements. This form must be submitted to CPA Examination Services in conjunction with your application for the Uniform CPA Examination. Candidates found eligible for the exam will not be able to sit for the exam prior to their expected graduation date and completion of all other education requirements. Once a final transcript is issued showing all education requirements have been met, you have 30 days to submit the final transcript. You shall not receive credit for any exam section taken unless completion of the degree and education requirements is received by CPAES.
